

1 the governor are executed by his subordinates.

2 Delegate Gilchrist.

3 DELEGATE GILCHRIST: That is correct by his 4 subordinates by reason of specific authority given them
5 but where you are attempting to delegate the governor's
6 functions as I understand is suggested by the section 7 under question, you are running into a different sort of 8 problem because you are setting up as has been said a 9 number of times a two-headed institution where you are 10 giving to a single individual rather than through an 11 agency an executive power.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: Well, I shouldn't have inter-
13 fered in the debate but since I have I will give you one
14 further illustration. It seems to me that you are drawing
15 a distinction without any real difference. If the Gover-
16 nor has the power to execute the law to include the police
17 law he executes a great many of those through the Superin-
18 tendent of Police. He doesn't personally supervise the 19 execution of all those powers.

20 Delegate Gilchrist.

21 DELEGATE GILCHRIST: May I suggest that the
